Foreword

The years unfold...classes...dances...study until the wee hours...ballgames...mobsessions at the snack bar. These are just a few of the moments that we will be remembering in the years to come. Between the covers of this book, we have attempted to picture as it is here at Bartlett Yancey...the highlights of this year's calendar along with those of rather insignificant events that became important because of the friends with whom we shared them. May you always share and cherish these moments that we've captured in the 1961 YAN TAT!
